

Charity Committee

2007/8

In May, Amanda Redstone, a Vine and former Head Girl, returned to school with Nella Beevor to give a very moving assembly about the International Red Cross campaign to raise money and awareness about child soldiers. Their hard-hitting and effective presentation certainly made the pupils think. The non-uniform day on the following Thursday where pupils and staff dressed as 'What I Want To Be When I Grow Up' raised money for this cause and we raised just over £250.

The other non-uniform days this year raised money for St Michael's Hospice and NCH. Play donations this year have gone to Demelza House and the Carol Service supported 'Help The Aged' and St Michael's Hospice.

The total raised by the school for charity this year is £11,724.89. In addition, the Anniversary Ball raised the magnificent sum of £20,000 for Rwanda Aid.

Charity and Community

The school community supported a number of local and international charities through various events across the school year. The Charity Committee selects which charities the school should support and the total raised by the school for charity was £ 11,724.89 and this does not include money raised at the Anniversary Ball or the Vines Day Fete.
