

Curriculum. English

---

Year 5

Michaelmas Term

Anthropomorphic stories
By significant children's authors
Direct and indirect speech
Revision of basic parts of speech
Verbs and tenses
Punctuation practice, including use of comma
Plurals
Roots, prefixes and suffixes
Study of diary writing
Letter writing

Reading

Spelling – differentiated lists based on spelling rules
The Wreck of the Zanzibar - M.Morpurgo

Where the Wild Geese Fly

Lent Term

Radio Plays – differences between stage and radio
Radio effects
Writing and performing a playscript
Grammar revision
Handwriting

Poetry – vocabulary, techniques and forms
Appreciation of poetry and analysis
Creating poetry in different forms in groups and individually

Reading

Spelling – differentiated lists based on spelling rules

I was a Rat – P. Pullman

Summer Term

Shared reading of newspaper article, discuss the problem and the different points of view.
Fact and opinion – the differences
Different points of views written as if you were each person.
Design a leaflet from one point of view. Discuss ways to make leaflet effective and persuasive.
Recognising styles of author and writing in that style

Preparation for ESB group choral examination incorporating poetry

Reading

Spelling – differentiated lists based on spelling rules